PACKING LIST

- Comfortable clothes for working
 - Some jobs can get messy/dirty: Cooking food in the kitchen, cleaning up tables after meals, washing dishes.
 - At least 2 pairs of pants: Some work crew will be cooking food and require pants in the kitchen.
 - Close-toed shoes: Required for all work crew.
 - Baseball hat: Work crew in the kitchen need to wear a hat. Bring your own! The kitchen does have hats if you forget, but bring something you are comfortable in.
- Flannel/plaid shirt, overalls, or outfit for the “Lumberjack” theme
- Sweatshirt or long sleeve shirt (temperatures will be cooler in the evening/morning)
- Toiletries
- A water bottle
- Bible, pen, journal
- Cell phone and charger
 - Work crew can keep their cell phones with them during the weekend. Phones need to be kept in the cabin, so they won’t be accessible during the work day. Make sure your phone charger is labeled!
 - Cell phone service can be spotty - we can’t promise your phone will work at Timber Wolf Lake.
- Spending money
 - We will stop for dinner on our travels to camp on Thursday night and stop for lunch on our travels home on Monday.
 - There is also a snack bar, coffee shop, and camp store at Timber Wolf. Cash and credit cards accepted.
- Snacks (optional)
